

FREE²Explore Science

with the

Banana Slug String Band

Saturday July 25, 2009

2 – 3 p.m.

Join us for a FREE outdoor concert with the highly entertaining, Banana Slug String Band celebrating science and ecology through music and performance. They incorporate rock, rap, reggae, jazz and folk, to create their own original eco-children's band sound.

Bring your sunscreen, low-backed beach chair or blanket for an hour concert on the grassy area behind the Library. No tickets or reservations are necessary!
