Thank you very much for volunteering to help with Kid Power this summer!
Fremont Main Library – Kid Power Volunteer Application – Summer 2017

Thank you for volunteering to help with the Kid Power program this summer. The Kid Power program is a good way for you to serve the public and to fulfill volunteering hours for school. You will also develop work skills and experience at the same time. Anyone going into 7th, 8th, or 9th grades in the fall may apply to be a Kid Power Volunteer at the Fremont Main Library. A Kid Power Volunteer’s primary duty is to help with the Summer Reading Game. Volunteers may also help with special events and perform other duties as time allows. Kid Power Volunteers must work a minimum of 6 hours during the summer to be eligible for the Kid Power Reward Party at the end of the summer.

Volunteer Contract (This Portion for Volunteer to Complete)

| NAME: ____________________________________________ | PHONE #: __________________ |
| EMAIL: __________________________________________________________________________ | GRADE IN FALL: ______ |

I, ____________________________________________, agree to work at least 6 hours as a Kid Power Volunteer between June 19th and August 19th, 2017, at the Fremont Main Library. I acknowledge that my primary duty will be to help library patrons with the Summer Reading Game. If I am not able to work my shift, I will contact the library and update my schedule online as soon as possible. It is my intention to follow the terms of this agreement in the spirit of good faith and cooperation.
